

NC STATE
UNIVERSITY

Center for Family and Community Engagement

We Are Hiring a Policy Analyst!

Are you a budding policy analyst? Do you like working with GIS maps?

We are looking for an advanced graduate student to join our Center in support of policy research. At the Center, you will have the opportunity to research and evaluate policies related to substance use and addiction in support of our NC Addictions Specialist Certificate Program for Paraprofessionals.

Work with us!

APPLICATION PERIOD ENDS
MONDAY, 1/19/22 AT 5:00PM

The Center for Family and Community Engagement (CFACE) is a public service and research center at North Carolina State University, founded in 2008. Join our team today!

We Are Now Hiring!

SUBMIT YOUR RESUME TODAY!

Responsibilities will include:

- Assessing need for addictions specialist training across North Carolina
- Determining policy implications for people purchasing learning
- Writing policy briefs based on existing evaluation data
- Developing course materials on federal and local policy related to substance use and addiction

Preferred fields of study include Economics, Educational Policy, Geospatial Analytics, Human and Resource Systems, Public Administration, Social Work, or Sociology

Pay: 9 hours/week at $18 - $20/hour

We pay graduate students $18/hour and doctoral students $20 and this position could be either one depending on their background.

To learn more about students working at our center visit <https://cface.chass.ncsu.edu/students-corner>.

Apply by emailing Marianne Latz at mlatz2@ncsu.edu. For more information, visit our website: <https://www.cface.org>